Another Good Idea Gone Wrong

VARIOUS VIEWS ON THE WAR EXPRESSED

OF FOUR COUNTRIES ENGAGED

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—RepresentaPRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 31.—Coviews of Sir Edward Grey, secretary in convention here today. Dumba, the ambassador of Austria before shipping. Hungary to the United States.

Count Okuma-"While it would be both unwise and premature to express at this time any opinion as to where and how the present war should be or will be terminated and peace be restored, I feel certain and, therefore, safe to say that the experiences of this titanic struggle will bring most forcibly home to use all sense of the weighty burdens and the horrible waste of war."

Von Bethmann-Hellweg-"I have been asked by the editor of the World's Work to give an answer to the question, how the United States could best make its neutrality serviceable for the purpose of helping the cause of humanity during the present terrible war. The answer seems obvious.

"The people of the United States will best serve the cause of peace and humanity by being not only neutral according to the letter of President Wilson's proclamation, but also impartial in the spirit of his further utterances. This is the only way to gain the confidence of the whole world, and without this confidence the United States cannot hope to render the important services to the cause of humanity which it wishes to render."

Official Austrian view-"When, after the dreadful slaughter of hundreds of thousands, doubtless signs of lassitude, a slackening of the fiery warlike spirit amongst 'the nations in arms' will be perceptible, the moment will have come for Prestdent Wilson to prepare once more his mediation to the belligerent powers. He is then warranted in the name of all neutral powers suffering severely through the war to exercise strong moral pressure upon the governments of the powers at war, which might be more ambitious and determined to prolong the struggle than the people themselves."

WILD RUMOR GAINS WIDE CIRCULATION

A rumor was rampant in Tonopah this morning that either the czar or the kaiser had been assassinated, or had died a natural death. At all events, the rumor was as vague as it was widely circulated. The Bonanza telephone bell tinkled constantly and many inquirers came in person, some with pleased, others with anxious anticipation written on their faces, according as their feelings may incline in the world struggle. The Bonanza's Associated Press service gave no information and nothing could be learned from the telegraph offices.
